PARTNERSHIP APPLICATION

In establishing all partnerships, CFFP is guided by the following principles:

- All partnerships will be determined by common purpose with mutual benefits;
- All partners should have equal status within the partnership;
- Partners must have an established legal status;
- Each party's responsibilities, roles and contributions should be clearly defined;
- Both parties must be able to raise issues concerning the quality of the working relationship in a spirit of transparency;
- There shall be no unfair advantage to any individual partner;
- Partnerships must be action-oriented in order to produce concrete measurable results, sustained beyond partnership duration.
